

AHMAD, Abrar

Abrar Ahmad was born and raised in Pakistan. He moved to Hong Kong in 1991 to study and subsequently found employment in the advertising business. At the time of the interview, he was working for his brother's business in Chungking Mansions and as a freelance graphic designer.

---

Interview date: 2010/05/21

Keyword: Advertising Business, Chungking Mansions,
Pakistani Community

Relates Ahmad's childhood in Pakistan and subsequent move to Hong Kong in 1997. Discusses the business environment within the Chungking Mansions and his work in advertising. Recounts the changes in Chungking Mansions throughout the years, and further discusses issues on the ethnic minority groups as well as the African and Pakistani communities in Hong Kong.

Interviewer: Amelia Allsop

I379

---

AHMAD