

ANDREASSEND, Gordon

Gordon Andreassend was born in New Zealand in 1934 and moved to Hong Kong to work in the Crown Lands and Surveys Office. He was promoted to Principal Government Land Surveyor (Public Works Department) and retired in 1995.

Interview date: 2014/03/28

Keyword: Civil Service, NT Development

Talks of his father's service during the Second World War and his personal career, training as a land surveyor and engineer. Also discusses his works at the Crown Lands and Surveys Office mapping Hong Kong and the New Territories, as well as working on reclamation projects.

Interviewer: Amelia Allsop

I471

ANDREASSEND