

BIEGER, Felix

Originally a pastry chef from Switzerland, Bieger joined The Peninsula Hong Kong in 1954. He later became the General Manager of The Peninsula and remained with the hotel for 53 years. Bieger was semi-retired at the time of the interview.

Interview date: 2007/08/03; 2008/11/12

Keyword: 1967 Riots, Kadoorie Family,
The Peninsula Hong Kong

Narrates his background as a chef at Leo Gaddi's restaurant. Details Bieger's career progression in the hotel service as well as the changes in the Hong Kong hotel business throughout the years.

Discusses incidents such as the 1967 riots, occupation curfews and SARS and their impact on The Peninsula's occupancy.

Interviewer: Amelia Allsop

I010, I251