

BIEGER, Nina

Nina Bieger is the wife of Felix Bieger, former General Manager of The Peninsula Hong Kong. She was born in Tsingtao and is of White Russian descent and spent the war years in Macau. After the war, she worked for the World Council of Churches in Hong Kong helping Jewish refugees in China and relocating them around the world.

Interview date: 2009/08/17

Keyword: 1967 Riots, Jewish Refugee, Portuguese Community, White Russian, WWII

Talks of family's origins and her years spent in Macau during the Second World War. Speaks of the Portuguese community, and her school days in Hong Kong. Describes her work at the World Council of Churches helping resettle Jewish refugees from China. Also shares some of the tragic refugee stories she had encountered.

Interviewer: Amelia Allsop

I309

BIEGER