

CATANGHAL, Maria Ethel

Maria Ethel Catanghal came to Hong Kong in 1996 with her husband from the Philippines when he received a civil engineering position. The Catanghals were still residing in Hong Kong at the time of the interview.

Interview date: 2010/06/23

Keyword: Filipino Community

Recounts her experience moving to Hong Kong from the Philippines as well as her initial difficulties in making local friends and learning the dialect. Talks of her personal observations on racial discrimination and minority lives in Hong Kong. Catanghal also compares the family and social values of Hong Kong and the Philippines.

Interviewer: Edward Kwong

I386

CATANGHAL