

FUNG, Richard

Richard Fung was born and raised in Hong Kong, and was educated at the Hong Kong Technical College (today's Hong Kong Polytechnic University). He started work in 1979 as a mechanical engineer and later joined the Hong Kong Engineering & Construction Company in 1985. At the time of the interview, Richard was the Building Manager of St. George's Building.

Interview date: 2014/02/14

Keyword: Hongkong Engineering & Construction Company,
Kadoorie Estates, St. George's Building

Talks of his early education and his work experience at Hong Kong Engineering & Construction Company. Also discusses the Kadoorie Estates office and recent management practices of St. George's Building.

Interviewer: Amelia Allsop

I468

FUNG