

GOLDMANN, Stephen

Steve Goldman grew up in New York, United States and studied chemical engineering in Eastern Pennsylvania. Goldman went on to work for ExxonMobil after his studies in the United Kingdom and the United States. He moved to Beijing in 1995 and then to Hong Kong to work on the Exxon-China Light (CLP) partnership before moving back to the U.S..

Interview date: 2007/11/05

Keyword: CLP, ExxonMobil, Kadoorie Family

Talks of his corporate planning role within the CLP-Exxon partnership project, his later move to Beijing and his first impressions of Hong Kong. Discusses the relationship between ExxonMobil, the Kadoorie Family and China Light.

Interviewer: Amelia Allsop

I039

GOLDMANN