

HOUGH, Joan

Joan Hough grew up in Essex, United Kingdom. She married a Hong Kong Chinese from Leeds before moving to Hong Kong with her two children. During her time in Hong Kong, Hough worked as an English teacher at a local school and volunteered with social activist Elsie Tu.

Interview date: 2012/03/27

Keyword: Education, Handover, Social Issues

Talks of her upbringing in the United Kingdom and her move to Hong Kong in 1971. Describes her experience learning Cantonese and teaching English in a school in Wanchai. Also discusses her volunteer works with Elsie Tu, social activism in Hong Kong, and her memories of the Handover in 1997.

Interviewer: Amelia Allsop

I440

HOUGH