

KNOX, Lawrence

Lawrence Knox was born and raised in Ireland. He later joined the Hong Kong Police Force and worked in a variety of high-ranking positions. At the time of the interview he was retired and residing in Essex, United Kingdom.

Interview date: 2010/12/21

Keyword: Marine Police, Police Force, Sir Edward Youde,
Vietnamese Refugee

Talks of his promotion to Chief Inspector and work at the South Division and his position at the Marine Police. Recounts the royal visits in 1986 and related preparations and protocols. Discusses the Vietnamese refugee situation in Hong Kong. Also recounts the death of Sir Edward Youde, and the difficulties in arranging a state funeral for him.

Interviewer: Amelia Allsop

I412