

KUAN, Professor Hsin-chi

Born and raised in Macau, Professor Kuan Hsin-chi was educated in Taiwan and Germany. Kuan later became involved in the Article 45 Concern Group, and was Chairman of the Civic Party and Chairman of the Citizen Advisory Committee of the ICAC. At the time of the interview, he was Professor of Government and Public Administration at the Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Interview date: 2008/01/23

Keyword: Handover, Heritage, ICAC, Politics

Discusses his education and academic studies in politics and diplomacy. Talks of his return to Hong Kong and involvement in the Article 45 Concern Group and Civic Party. Further discusses Hong Kong's political system and British colonial administration. Interview ends with Kuan's personal views on the post-Handover changes and Hong Kong heritage.

Interviewer: Amelia Allsop

I054

KUAN