

KWAN, Johnny Ka-cheong

Johnny Kwan Ka-cheong is the son of architect Kwan Wing-hong, who was responsible for the CLP Headquarters and the Rediffusion Building. He was also half-brother to famous film actress Nancy Kwan. Kwan worked as an architect in the United Kingdom and returned to Hong Kong to join the MTR Corporation in 1995. At the time of the interview, he was residing at China Coast Community.

Interview date: 2012/03/21; 2012/03/27

Keyword: Architecture, MTR

Relates his family background and history as well as his architecture practice. Narrates his work and life in London; and describes his work with the MTR Corporation after his return to Hong Kong in 1995.

Interviewer: Amelia Allsop

I436, I441