

LEE, Lily

Lily Lee was born in Australia and came to Hong Kong when she was 20 and spent the war years there. Lee went back to Australia briefly after the Second World War before returning to Hong Kong.

Interview date: 2008/06/21

Keyword: British Army Aid Group, Japanese Occupation,
Red Cross

Talks of her childhood life in Australia. Recounts her work experience at ExxonMobil, and her time spent in Hong Kong during the Japanese occupation. Talks of the BAAG scheme, Red Cross and work environment in Hong Kong during the post-war period.

Interviewer: Amelia Allsop

I150