

MASTER, Ruby

Ruby Master was born in Hong Kong to Indian immigrants who originated from Bombay. Master received her schooling in Hong Kong until her education was interrupted by the war, during which she had witnessed the Japanese occupation first-hand. Ruby Master is also a prominent member of the Parsi Community.

---

Interview date: 2009/10/22

Keyword: 1967 Riots, Handover, Indian Community,
Japanese Occupation, WWII

Talks of her Parsi family roots in India and China, and discusses Parsi diaspora and the Parsi community in Hong Kong. Mentions prominent Parsi families and individuals in Hong Kong, such as Ruttonjee and Shroff. Master also recounts her livelihood in Hong Kong during the Japanese occupation and further talks of the changes in Hong Kong since the 1997 Handover.

Interviewer: Amelia Allsop

I337

---

MASTER