

LANG, Frederick & Enid; MAYERS, Rita

Frederick Lang was born and raised in Plymouth, United Kingdom and later moved to Rhodesia (Zimbabwe), where he married his wife Enid. Lang later came to Hong Kong to work for the Civil Service before moving to China Light (CLP)'s accounts department.

Lang is joined by his wife Enid and their neighbour Rita Mayers, widow of Ronnie Mayers, the former Head of Generation at China Light.

Interview date: 2007/11/01

Keyword: CLP, ExxonMobil, Kadoorie Family, NT Development

Talks of his move to Hong Kong as a civil servant and his later work experience at CLP. Discusses CLP's contribution to the development of the New Territories and the growth of Hong Kong. Also mentions his meeting with Lord Kadoorie and expresses his pride in working for the Kadoories.

Frederick Lang is joined by wife Enid and neighbour Rita Mayers, the latter speaks of her impressions of colonial Hong Kong and the issues of resettlement estates.

Interviewer: Amelia Allsop

I038