

OLAES, Beatrice Agnes

Beatrice Agnes Olaes is of Portuguese descent and was raised in Hong Kong. She worked at the Matilda Hospital on The Peak for 22 years. At the time of interview, she was residing in the China Coast Community.

Interview date: 2008/06/21

Keyword: Japanese Occupation, Macau, Matilda Hospital,
Peak Development

Talks of her family's background and childhood in Australia. Describes her work at Matilda Hospital on The Peak and talks of meeting people from different nationalities at work. Narrates her schooling and life during the Japanese occupation and describes the housing conditions in the refugee camps in Macau.

Interviewer: Amelia Allsop

I151