

SMART, Bill

Colonel Bill Smart helped set up resettlement centres in Nepal on behalf of the Kadoorie Family in 1967, and has continued since to be involved in the Kadoories' charities. Smart later became the Head of the Kadoorie Agricultural Aid Association in Nepal.

Interview date: 2010/01/23

Keyword: Gurkhas, KAAA, Kadoorie Family, Philanthropy

Talks of his charity works for the Kadoorie Family in Nepal; describes the nature and focus: training ex-servicemen in improved techniques of agriculture. Relates Sir Horace Kadoorie's establishment of the Kadoorie Agricultural Aid Association and Smart's own role in the Nepal branch. Discusses the scope of the aid provided by the programme and some of the big challenges it faces in its work.

Interviewer: Edward Kwong

I354