

TONG, PAK-sang

Tong Pak Sang was born in 1934 in Hong Kong. He joined the Hongkong Engineering & Construction Company in 1963 as an accounting clerk, and was involved in the building management of St George's Building.

Interview date: 2014/03/17

Keyword: Hongkong Engineering & Construction Company,
Kadoorie Estates, St. George's Building

Relates his early schooling and work experience at Hongkong Engineering & Construction Company. Recalls his memories of the first St. George's Building and its redevelopment in the 1960s. Discusses the building management practices in St. George's and the architectural and engineering elements of the building.

Interviewers: Amelia Allsop, Sybil He

I469