

VESARACH, Yudhadanai

Yudhadanai Vesarach was born and educated in Bangkok, Thailand. He served in the Siam Intercontinental Hotel and The Regent. Vesarach joined The Peninsula Bangkok in 1999 as Chief Concierge and was admitted into Les Clefs d'Or (worldwide association of hotel concierges).

Interview date: 2008/09/17

Keyword: The Peninsula Bangkok

Recounts his career progression from a hotel receptionist to chief concierge. Describes the duties of a concierge and the challenges in his work in the 1970s and 1980s. Discusses the qualities of a good concierge and the values and traditions of The Peninsula Hotels. Recounts some interesting stories and further expresses his enjoyment and sense of belonging working at The Peninsula.

Interviewer: Melanie Li

I208

VESARACH