

VLASTELICA, Jack

Jack Vlastelica was born in Pennsylvania, United States and received his Finance degree from the Penn. State University. His first permanent job was with ExxonMobil. Vlastelica came to Hong Kong in 1992 to work as an auditor for the Exxon – China Light (CLP) Partnership. He retired in 2002 and has since moved back to the United States.

Interview date: 2007/11/07

Keyword: CLP, ExxonMobil

Relates his work experience as an internal auditor at ExxonMobil. Describes his career progression, posts in different places, as well as his move to Hong Kong and his first impressions of the city. Talks of working at China Light and the audit practices in Hong Kong. Also shares his family's experience living in Hong Kong.

Interviewer: Amelia Allsop

I040

VLASTELICA